End of Year Celebration by Anne Wax

Once again, we had a well-attended End-of-Year celebration. Some 40 of us gathered at the Talon Grill in Hawk's Prairie. Before I describe the event, I want to say the party was made possible by the behind the scenes contributions of several members. Thank you Marilyn, Wendy, Carla, and Shanah for pulling together the pictures and videos; Sherry for helping plan an excellent dinner menu, our door prizes and the gifting to Toys for Tots; Carolyn for her help before and during the party; and Keith for our sound system.

My recollections of the most memorable events from the program follow.

Before the Celebration

We started gathering at 6 pm for drinks and appetizers. Carolyn and Will greeted everyone and gave out programs and door prize tickets. Jim and Karen then showed us the way to the tree, where we place our gifts for local children and bought raffle tickets from Billy. We partied at the no-host bar and snacked from the appetizer table, which included the outstanding Chinese chicken salad with peanut sauce, cheese and crackers and stuffed mushrooms (yum!). While we ate and talked, our entertainer George the Magician crafted gifts of balloon flowers and hats while sizing up our members to find his "victims" (oh – I mean volunteers).

Welcome

At 6:45 we swung into the next segment of the program when I introduced "George The Magician", who entertained us with banter and magic. The tricks that were the most fun involved our members. Will had his pockets picked, Karen Robinson watched the balloons she tried to hold fly away, and Arthur successfully projected the image of his selected card to the group demonstrating his psychic powers.

Dinner

Chef Richard Wright pleased us again with his buffet dinner, which included salads, sweet potatoes with pecans, baby potatoes, chicken and dumplings, salmon, and carved flank steak.

Year-In-Review

This year we had another stunning review of the year, complete with club videos and pictures. A host of our members came to the front of the room and expressed what they liked most about their favorite events. We did have technical difficulties with the videos so we wove in other activities and the flow of the evening was preserved.

I particularly remember:

- Don's heartfelt story of bringing our cars to the youth of Camp Promise, followed by one of the women who worked at the Talon Grill telling us how much her two daughters with Muscular Dystrophy had loved the camp.
- Our parades, picnics and parties video, which ended with Carla and Lonnie dancing to "Happy" by Pharrell Williams.
- The breathtaking trip up to Windy Ridge that ended with a view of the mountain through Will and Marilyn's window.
- The scenes of devastation from Oso and the drive in to Lake Pateros.
- And finally, when, on the Mt St Helen's Do-Over Tour, Carolyn asked Marilyn "Do you want me to slow down?" and Marilyn replied "No – you just have a ball. Remember I ride with Will!"

I thought our historians and club members did a great job of capturing the fun and camaraderie we had all year.

President's Message

I enjoyed last year, and I can't wait for this year. We're developing a wonderful calendar of events.

But the first thing we have to do is elect new officers.

I encourage everyone to think about who might be a good officer, yourself included, and come ready to nominate your choices at our January meeting.

Save the Wave,

Anne

Outstanding Member of the Year

We then passed out ballots and pens so everyone could vote on the Member of the Year.

While the ballots were counted, we enjoyed dessert, including brownies, ice cream with caramel sauce, cheese cake and fruit.

With full bellies, we raffled off our door prizes, and then the 50-50 for Toys for Tots. John Moysiuk of Toys for Tots told us about the program and the difference our gifts and donation will make for children in Thurston County. Our members enjoyed the opportunity to give this way and there was overwhelming support to do this again next year.

I then had the honor of presenting Wendy with the Outstanding Member of the Year award for 2014.

Wrap up

We wrapped up the evening with a short look ahead to 2015, where we will continue to enjoy our tried and true favorite tours and events while adding in new ideas that our members bring.

At the end of the program, I closed the evening and gradually everyone headed home.
